

8th December 2008

PRESS RELEASE

FIRE AT PLAISIO STOURNARI

On Sunday, December 7th 2008, a fire broke out in the PLAISIO store in Stournari 24 as a result of the events that took place in the area.

The fire expanded and as a result the store was completely destroyed. The building, the stock and the equipment were insured by 100% from a consortium of insurance companies.

The operation of the other stores, the B2B department and the internet store continues normally. It is the intention of the Group PLAISIO COMPUTERS to re-operate the store as soon as possible and to this end, restoration work is about to begin.

The Group with a later announcement will inform the investment public of every relevant development.